RECALL OF QUAKES ARE OFFICIALS FELT OVER IS AIM COUNTRY

I. W. W. and Socialists Begin
Move Today to Oust
City Administration

Seven Reasons Given for Recall at Meeting Held Here Yesterday

Asking for the recall of Mayor Frank K. Mott and the entire city administration, the first petition to be issued in Oakland under the recall provisions of the new charter will be circulated today by the Socialist party.

Resolutions urging the ousting of the entire Mott administration were adopted yesterday at the meeting of the Socialists of the bay cities, held in Rice Institute, and seven reasons for the recommendation are given.

Self Schulberg, representing the Socialists of San Francisco and the San Francisco Central Labor Council, J. Scott Wilson, mayor of Berkeley, and the Socialist speakers of Oakland, were bitter in their attacks on the city administration for the breaking up by the police of the Socialist meeting in Hamilton Hall, and preventing street meetings.

DECLARED OUTRAGE.

"It is outrageous," said Mayor Wilson, "that a city should so far forget itself as to permit an attack like that of Sunday night's week ago. The constitution has given us the right of free speech and free assembly, and the action of the Oakland police in attempting to abrogate that right can never allow."

Schulberg was also strong in his denunciation of the raid. "We will win the fight on the free speech question," he said.

The seven reasons for the recall as given by the meeting, are as follows:

Charges of misuse of the waterfront for fifty years and that it has been turned over to corporate interests.

That contracts for work on the new city hall, amounting to $500,000, have been illegally let.

That personal property taxes have been collected at the rate of 60 per cent in excess of the lawful rate.

That money in the hands of the City

U.S. PATENT LAW IS SHAKEN

Alaska Is Shaken by Earth Movement, Is the Report

Severe Shocks Recorded by Seismographs on Pacific Coast

WASHINGTON. March 11.—An earthquake of more than average severity was recorded on the seismograph of the University of Washington, from 2:13 to 3:10 a.m. The vibrations were east to west. The preliminary tremors were brief, and this fact gives rise to a suspicion that the earthquake occurred in Alaska.

Following the two minutes of preliminary tremors there were four or five minutes of heavy shocks, then fifty minutes of less violent motion.

Last week, while Alaska was cut off by submarine disturbances in Puget Sound that broke the cable in two places, a distinct earth shock was felt in Valdez, but did no damage.

The Alaska earthquakes as a rule are "not serious, except in midsummer, when they split the glaciers and send flows of water that sweep the country below."

RECORD AT SANTA CLARA.

SAN JOSE, March 11.—Father Ricard of the observatory at Santa Clara College, reports a record on his seismograph this morning of an earthquake, farther away than any recorded for several months.

The vibrations began at 2:20:10 and ended at 2:26:12, the amplitude being 1½ millimeters, and the distance 1314 kilometers west 33 degrees 41 minutes.

As to the relation of earthquakes to sun spots Father Ricard says:

"The above is a striking illustration of a law demonstrated at the College of Santa Clara by actual observation, and by Prof. Albert Porta, historically, that the great seismic events of the world always coincide with the solar disturbances, approaching the central meridian, for a fact, the great group of sun spots announced by Prof. W. T. Foster of Washington two months ago is now within less than two days from the central."

MINERS OF WORLD TO STRIKE

Decision of Supreme Court
Upholds the 'Inventor's Monopoly'

Minority Report Declares the Rights of American People
Are Injured by Ruling

WASHINGTON. March 11.—A far-reaching decision upholding the right of patentees to dictate absolutely how their patented articles may be sold by retailers, and declaring legal the inventor's "monopoly" in his selling contract, was made today by the Supreme Court of the United States. It was a divided court, ruling, and against this majority view, announced by Justice Burton, three members of the bench—Chief Justice White and Justices Hughes and Lamar dissented.

Attorney General Wickesham, Solicitor General Lehman, and a large assembly of lawyers were present in the court and apparently regarded the decision as epoch making.

Chief Justice White declared that Congress should act to head off "untold evils" that would follow today's construction of the patent laws. He said that under the majority's ruling the patent laws could be stretched so as to include a patent every conceivable thing used in every American household.

ARRAIGNS MAJORITY.

The chief justice arraigned the majority as breaking all precedents, the court in its past history, he said, "never having failed to do its duty to the whole people and to stand as the protector of every household."

The case involved alleged infringement in selling supplies for use on a patented rotary mimeograph. A notice on the machine set forth that it was sold on the restriction that it was to be used only with supplies made by the patenting company.

In announcing the opinion Justice Burton said the very object of the statute was "to give a monopoly to the inventor and that fact, he continued, that monopoly in contracts disposing of his articles by charging such price as pleased was not illegal."

"If such conditions interfered with public policy," he said, "Congress alone must change the patent laws."

Chief Justice White declared that now the patented might become a patent law unto himself, monopolizing things not novel or new.

MINNEAPOLIS, March 11.—The latest thing in leap year proposals was sent by B. B. Jackson, assistant superintendent of the public school. The letter is signed by Stina Wilson of St Paul and reads:

"You need a wife."

"You are too timid with the young ladies."

"I have more money than I can invest."

WHEELER GUEST OF THEODORE ROOSEVELT

BERKELEY, March 11.—President Benjamin Ide Wheeler of the University of California returned on today's Ocean Liner Limited from the East, where he has visited several of the larger cities for the past three weeks. During his trip he spoke at the 125th anniversary of the founding of the University of Pittsburgh. He was also the guest of Colonel Theodore Roosevelt at a conference while in New York.

COAL TRADE FEARS GENERAL WALKOUT IF NEGOTIATIONS FAIL IN UNITED STATES

Traffic in London Congested as Result of Labor Troubles;
Factories Shut Down

NEW YORK, March 11.—A world-wide strike of coal miners is regarded by the coal trade as more than a likelihood if negotiations now in progress between the anthracite and bituminous workers and their employers in this country do not result in a settlement.

With more than a million coal miners on strike in Great Britain and 150,000 miners in Germany voting to quit work to force higher wages a severe coal shortage in Europe is faced.

The anthracite coal operators are drafting their reply to the hard coal miners here for presentation to the miners Wednesday, who have been in Cleveland, the anthracite operators, and their employees will confer for the purpose of trying to bring about an adjustment of conditions in the soft coal fields.

Meanwhile, coal is being loaded on the Atlantic seaboard for South American and European ports usually supplied by English firms.

PRICES ADVANCE.

LONDON, March 11.—For the rapidly dwindling stocks of coal on hand in North Wales, an advance in price of from 25 to 100 per cent was demanded today and this fact necessitated the closing of practically every factory and quarry in that part of the country. In other portions of the United Kingdom, conditions were almost as bad.

The weekly shipments of coal from the ports of South Wales last week amounted to 30,000 tons compared with the usual 30,000 tons per week.

Two of the largest paper mills in the Midland counties ceased work today. All their employees were discharged. From every other point throughout the country reports reached London that work was being stopped.

Pressure of traffic on the street cars and omnibus lines in London as a result of the restriction of the suburban train service has become so great that the authorities have given permission to people to stand up in the vehicles, the rule against which in normal times is rigidly enforced, infraction of it being severely punished.

The strike shows little sign of settling.

Besides the miners, another million workers, men and women, employed in factories and mills in all parts of Great Britain, have been thrown out of employment because of the impossibility of obtaining fuel to run the machinery.

Pieces of provisions and the necessities of life have gone up to such an extent that extreme distress exists among the poorer classes. Railroads have restricted their train service, river steamship schedules have been suspended, the gas and electric supply companies have curtailed their illuminants, the mail has been retarded and many ocean steamers have been laid up.

The government has failed thus far in its efforts to bring men and operators together and it is thought the minimum wage bill for miners will be introduced in the House as a last resort.

Many of the mine owners have expressed their sympathy with the principle of a fixed mine wage, but others decline even to consider the idea.

GERMAN MINERS STRIKE.

BERLIN, March 11.—The coal strike went into effect in the Westphalian coal mines today when about 50 per cent of the 350,000 miners employed there obeyed the call of their leaders to cease work. In some districts the cessation of work was satisfactorily complete, while in others from 15 to 30 per cent of the men struck.

Large forces of police are on duty

THOMAS KILLS SEVERAL WITH JACKKNIFE.

CHIPPENDALE FALLS, WIS., March 11.—J. Thomas is in the hospital here after an all-night fight with a pack of wolves in the northern part of the state. He was overtaken while on his way to a neighbor's home and a though armed only with a jackknife, he battled with the animals, killing several and chasing driving them away. He is suffering from exposure and a number of bites given him by the wolves but probably will recover.

WILSON TO TAKE VACATION HE WINDS UP OFFICE AFFAIRS

CHIEF OF POLICE ADELBERT WILSON, who is to take vacation in effort to mend health.

Names of Probable Successors Form Subject of Local Gossip

Although suffering considerably, Chief of Police Adelbert Wilson paid a visit to the City Hall this morning to close up the affairs of his office before going on a two or three weeks' leave of absence under orders from his physician, Dr. William S. Porter. The announcement of the place, as well as Captain Charles Beck, Captain Lynch is the senior in year of service.

Porter has also been made of Colonel J. K. Ritter. Recommendation was made of Colonel Ritter when the new administration took office last July, and the Colonel asked that should the place fall open, he be considered a candidate.

For the past three years Colonel Ritter has made his home at 578 Thirty-fourth street. Prior to his coming to San Francisco he was prominently identified with the Indiana State Militia and is now well known as the commander in chief of the Patriotic Militia of the Odd Fellows, and as the man who drilled the famous "White Oaks" team of Elks, which organization won the pennant in competition with drill throughout the United States at the meeting of the Grand Lodge in Los Angeles several years ago.

According to Dr. Porter, this cannot be known until Chief Wilson has had an absolute rest of two weeks or more on a special diet. Quiet, with afternoon drives to get plenty of fresh air, and a special diet have been prescribed to ward off the fear of a complete nervous breakdown.

Should the illness prove less amenable to treatment, it is hoped, and the consequence follow that the chief must retire permanently. Commissioner Turner will take up the matter of a successor. Captain Petersen of the detective department, and Captain J. F. Lynch of the police department, have been mentioned for the place, as well as Captain Charles Beck. Captain Lynch is the senior in year of service.

During the absence of Chief Wilson, Captain of Inspectors Walter J. Petersen will be in charge, as the charter makes him ex-officio chief in the absence of the head of the department. No arrangements will be made for permanently filling the place of Chief Wilson until it is known how serious his case is.

During the absence of Chief Wilson, Captain of Inspectors Walter J. Petersen will be in charge, as the charter makes him ex-officio chief in the absence of the head of the department. ## PETITION FOR CITY OFFICIALS' RECALL Socialists and I. W. W. Begin Movement to Oust Entire Administration.

Treasurer has been unlawfully deposited.

CHARTER NULLIFIED CHARGE.

That the city charter and the whole principle of the commission form of government have been nullified "by abrogating the power of the Commissioner of Public Works to make appointments in his own department and by placing the control of the department of the public works in the commissioners as a whole."

That the police department has been used at public expense for the protection of corporate interests and has imported "thugs and gun men" to act as strike-breakers.

That the police have forcibly prevented the right of free speech and public assembly.

H. C. Tuck, organizer for the local branch and editor of the Socialist World, opened the meeting and the election of T. P. Sherman as chairman followed. Charles H. Stocking was chosen secretary.

The committee appointed to investigate the affairs of last week brought in both majority and minority reports, both condemning the administration, the principal difference between the two being in a paragraph in the preamble of each.

ADOPT MAJORITY REPORT.

The majority committee report was adopted and R. L. Brause, of the local I. W. W. movement, Mayor Wilson of Berkeley and Schulberg were then announced as the speakers.

A petition, signed by qualified electors equal to 15 per cent of those voting for Mayor at the last election, will be necessary to call the election. A majority vote at the recall election is sufficient to carry.

The work of preparing the preliminary papers for the recall campaign was placed in the hands of the delegates from the seven Oakland branches to the County Central Committee. The branches in Oakland were also authorized to appoint a committee of 25 to take charge of the recall campaign.

MET BY POLICE.

Hearing that a party of I. W. W. members from San Francisco were coming across on a Creek Route boat last night to take part in a demonstration with the Oakland organization, Police Captain Charles Bock and Sergeant William Brackett, with a detail of twenty men, waited for the 8:20 boat at the foot of Broadway, and when the contingent came from the boat they were taken in charge by the police.

Twenty-five men were held at the wharf until the boat went back and then, with the permission of the Southern Pacific, they were loaded aboard. The police guarded the ferry entrance until the boat started for San Francisco again.

The spokesman of the San Francisco contingent declared that they were coming across to be hired by a man named Smith, who wanted them for railroad work, and that they were to meet him in front of Murray & Ready's employment agency on Market street. He did not appear, they said, and they decided to cross to Oakland. There was no trouble.

STATEMENT BY TURNER.

"There is no justification for holding Mayor Mott responsible in this alleged free speech crusade," declared Commissioner of Public Health and Safety Fred C. Turner this morning. "Mayor Mott was out of town when the riots occurred Sunday night which were so summarily put down by the police. The action of the police in doing this, I am sure, was done by my orders, and if there is any criticism to be made of it, I am the man responsible and I will bear the criticism. Mayor Mott had nothing to do with the affair."

BRANDS CHARGES NONSENSE.

Commissioner of Finance and Revenue John Forrest stated this morning that he knew nothing of the recall proposition or any reason why he should be invoked at this time. Forrest declared that he had had nothing to do with the free speech matter as that comes in Commissioner Turner's department. Forrest denied that the charges concerning office of City Treasurer Edwin Morse were non-sensical.

STANDS ON HIS RECORD.

Commissioner of Public Works Harry S. Anderson said:

"I have at all times tried since my becoming a member of the office of Commissioner of Public Works of the city of Oakland to do what I considered right, always trying to rated the best interests of the people at heart. I have had the time play the parties for my favorite

POLICE USE CLUBS ON STRIKERS

Many Women in Crowd That Threaten Bluecoats, Following Mill-Workers' Arrest
Surge Into Station and Fear Felt That Attempt at Rescue Will Be Made

LAWRENCE, Mass., March 11.—A demonstration early today in front of the police station by several hundred strikers and sympathizers, including many women, threatened for a time to develop into a serious disturbance. The crowd assembled after the arrest of a woman striker and became so menacing that the police had to use their clubs.

The police claim that the woman displayed a revolver while engaged in picketing. On the way to the station the police were followed by a crowd of several hundred persons. Just before the station was reached the crowd surged in and it seemed for a time that an attempt to rescue the prisoner would be made. The police succeeded in driving back the crowd. Six of the leaders were arrested, four of them women.

The strikers made the biggest demonstration of picketing today since the strike began. It was estimated that more than 5000 persons attended.

The conference committee of the strikers expected to go to Boston today to meet officials of the American Woolen Company and the legislative committee on conciliation. Settlement with the American Woolen Company was looked on as likely.

Gustavo Bruno was sentenced to the house of correction for two months for assaulting a girl operative today. Two women were fined $25 each for assaulting girls. They appealed. One male picket was fined $100 for intimidation. Small fines were imposed on five other women.

TEXTILE MILLS INCREASE WAGES.

BOSTON, March 11.—The upward wage movement in the textile mills of Northern New England which on Saturday affected 125,000 operatives continued to gain headway today by the posting of notices in other mills announcing a raise of at least 5 per cent dating from today.

Bootblacks to Erect a $25,000 Building

MONTCLAIR, N. J., March 11.—Joseph and Angelo Pidola, two young men who for the last six years have shined shoes at the railroad station here, will this week begin the erection of a $25,000 brick business block on Pine street. The building will be paid for out of savings from their business.

ROOSEVELT LETTER IS FORWARDED TO BUREAU

WASHINGTON, March 11.—A copy of Colonel Roosevelt's letter forwarded yesterday by Senator Dixon, his manager, to William E. McKinley, director of the Taft campaign bureau. In an accompanying note Senator Dixon asks whether McKinley's position is endorsed by President Taft, as Senator Dixon's has been by Colonel Roosevelt. The Dixon letter says:

"In view of this unqualified endorsement of my challenge of March 4 for a general primary test of the sentiment of Republican voters as to their presidential candidate in the approaching election I shall be glad to know whether Mr. Taft, whose personal representatives you say are similarly endorsed you say in refusing that test."

GETS FINAL DECREE.

A final decree of divorce was today granted in the Superior Court to Mrs. Mabel S. Tinglin from Charles G. Tinglin. Her interlocutory decree was granted a year ago in Judge Harris' court on the ground of wilful neglect.

course I have pursued and am pursuing, in that case they have their recourse in the recall."

NOT I. W. W. MEN.

It was declared today by members of the Industrial Workers of the World that the men deported from the state of the South to the North were not I. W. W. men. In fact, it was admitted that they had, in fact, been a number of laborers who had been promised work through the Murray & Ready employment agency on the Oakland & Antioch railway. The men, seventy-nine in number, were sent to the same innumerable cities, mostly by boat, by Captain Charles Bock and Sergeant William Brackett with a posse of police. They were placed in a freight shed until the opportunity came to send them back on the train to San Francisco. Several days ago Murray & Ready came to show that they were seeking employment.

MAYOR TO REPLY.

Mayor Frank K. Mott will not at this time take up the challenge thrown down by the Socialists to the recall of recall. He has not received any official notification of the intention to invoke the recall provisions of the charter against him and his administration. Mayor Mott has been out of town for a week now, and he has not been able to get in touch with the police.

"It is well that these Industrial Workers should be controlled, however. I have discussed the matter with the police several times, as it seemed evident that the abuse of the freedom given these street speakers should be restrained.

"We have been very liberal with the I. W. W. We granted them permission to speak on the street, but they greatly abused this privilege. The city, however, did not stand for the incendiary talk these men gave vent to on the city's streets. They attacked the Christian religion, the American flag, the courts, the constitution, and everything that a decent American holds dear."

"These men openly advocated the commission of crime. We could not tolerate this. I was out of town when the police came to tell me that the police had to go in to enforce the law by arresting them for such incendiary language."

"I have at all times tried since my becoming a member of the office of Commissioner of Public Works of the city of Oakland to do what I considered right, always trying to rated the best interests of the people at heart. I have had the time play the parties for my favorite

CAPWELL STORE TO BE MODEL IN EVERY RESPECT

All Departments to Measure Up to the Highest Standard of Merchandising

Now that the magnificent building of the H. C. Capwell company is practically completed public interest centers on the public reception next Saturday when this active establishment shall open its doors.

In keeping with the policy of the Capwell company for the past twenty-three years it is thoroughly recognized that everything connected with the new store must measure up to the highest standard of modern merchandising.

During the past two years people connected with the Capwell company have visited the largest and best organized department stores in the United States and now only in the larger elements but in the smallest details has been incorporated the latest experiences and ideas of the country's best stores.

Among the many new features of the Capwell establishment will be found a very extensive china, bunt-a-brac, lamp and householdware department. There is an interesting bit of local commercial history connected with the installation of this modern department in the Capwell building. When the firm, following the successful example of the best department stores of the East and Europe, decided to add this new department, efforts were made to secure the very best stock and management that could be found in the country. Just about this time the Capwell company was brought in touch with the great china house of Nathan Dohman of San Francisco, through the Howell-Dohman store in this city.

The Dohman people are recognized as the leading and largest house in its line west of Chicago. It did not take long for these two progressive firms to convince themselves that it would be to their mutual advantage to install the Howell-Dohman business in the Capwell store. As it would be impossible to find a more up-to-date chinaware house in the West, the idea found favor with the Capwell people and resulted in the Howell-Dohman established moving bodily out of its four-story building on Thirteenth street and transferring its entire business to the Capwell block where it now awaits the opening day.

Another evidence that every department of the big Capwell store shall reflect the latest and best will be found in the Pomellar roof garden. This decided novelty in western stores is destined to be one of the show pieces of Oakland. No commercial building in the country has ever attempted such a masterpiece of work which represents the last and most generous word in the combination of the beautiful and practical. That such an ambitious creation can be found in Oakland must be a source of pride and satisfaction to every citizen.

When the question arises as to how best to maintain the excellence in every detail demanded by the well-established Capwell regime, it was decided that no concern could better guarantee perfect satisfaction than the celebrated Pig and Whistle firm of San Francisco and now in Oakland, which is known all over the coast for the quality and variety of its products. So it is that the catering to appetites on the roof garden has been placed in such capable hands. No need to say more than that the patrons of this new departure in the Capwell organization will find the many excellencies of the Pig and Whistle in addition to the exclusive features of the Capwell roof garden, including the wonderful panorama of city, bay, valley and hill stretching for miles on every hand. A small fortune has been expended on the large, handsome soda fountain which with all its settings and counter is constructed entirely of the richest onyx that could be found. The design of the fountain is forcefully unique and the exquisite colorings cannot be described in words.

When the Capwell building is opened there will be given a pleasing surprise to the quarter of a million people in and around Oakland.

STRIKE OVER ALL WORLD IS FEARED

Coal Trade Fears a General Walkout if Negotiations Fail.

everywhere throughout the region. The strikers, however, generally are peaceable, and only two isolated attacks on non-union miners have been reported.

The conflict is quite as much a struggle between the mine owners and their employees. The leaders of the non-Socialist Christian union are so far holding their followers well in hand. The success of the strike will depend upon how far the feeling of solidarity with the striking committee of the Socialist miners' union is carried.

Public opinion in the Westphalian district, which was with the miners during the last great strike, is now reported to be largely against the strikers.

The stock exchange took a favorable view of the situation today, coal stocks being firm. The effect of the strike is not yet noticeable on industry in general nor on the prices of the necessities of life. The iron works in Westphalia, in the grand duchy of Luxembourg, and in Lorraine, are reported to have supplies of coal sufficient to enable them to carry on work for three weeks.

TWO-THIRDS RESPOND.

PARIS, March 11.—About two-thirds of the coal miners of France have responded to the appeal of the general miners' federation to strike for twenty-four hours. This action is designed to show the government the "solidarity" of the miners and as a warning to Parliament that the miners are not satisfied with the workingmen's old age pension laws.

MANY AT WORK.

ESSEN, Germany, March 11.—Official figures show that of 170,863 miners employed in this district, 65 per cent have continued at work. The strike is fairly general in Eastern Westphalia, but in Western Westphalia a majority of the miners continue at work. The non-strikers are not being molested.

MULLINS TO SPEAK ON COUNTY TAXES

John F. Mullins, chairman of the board of supervisors, will address the Alameda County Civic Association at its next meeting, Thursday night, March 14, at the Chamber of Commerce. The subject of his talk will be "Methods of Taxation in Alameda County."

Mullins speaks at the invitation of the association, which is interested in securing an equalization of assessed valuations in the city and county, and in reducing the existing tax rate.

ERNST OBTAINS CUSTODY OF CHILD

Deciding to accede to the wishes of his son-in-law, Mrs. Rosella Yore, John Ernest gave John Nye Ernest, the custody of his little boy, John Martin Ernest, without further contest. She dismissed all litigation pending in the matter in Judge Oden's court this morning when the case came up. Ernest, who is a sure-veteran in the employ of the Federal government, left the courtroom with his wife and son.

Ernest and Catherine Yore, when they were students in the Oakland High School, were married, but the union was not a happy one and they were divorced. Mrs. Ernest died shortly after giving birth to the child.

After the death of the mother Ernest signed an agreement to leave the child in the hands of its grandmother, but recently filed suit to have the Superior Court allying that the boy was not being taken care of in a proper manner. Mrs. Yore's finances were bad, and she relinquished the child.

They have been very liberal with the I. W. W. We granted them permission to speak on the street, but they greatly abused this privilege. The city, however, did not stand for the incendiary talk these men gave vent to on the city's streets. They attacked the Christian religion, the American flag, the courts, the constitution, and everything that a decent American holds dear."

SAYS PACKERS DID VIOLATE THE LAW

CHICAGO, March 11.—"The packers violated the law and knew they were doing it at the time," said Special Agent Shantz, arguing for the government in the trial of Clarence S. Darrow, the defense attorney.

Shantz argued that the packers violated the law in that they did not pay the minimum wage set by the federal government.

RUEF'S DINNER IS CAUSE OF JOURNEY

Sheriff Fred Eggers Goes to San Rafael to Look Up Evidence.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 11.—Sheriff Fred Eggers went over to San Rafael yesterday afternoon to investigate Ruef's little dinner party. His suspended deputy, William O'Kane, took Eggers to the Marin restaurant, on the main street of San Rafael, and there the restaurant keeper told Eggers that Ruef and the party had dined there, but that there were only three in the party—Ruef, Dr. Siebel and O'Kane. He did not know anything about Dr. Stone, the fourth member of the party. O'Kane took the Sheriff down to the station, where he found him meeting the chauffeur of the party. He told a story similar to O'Kane's. Then the Sheriff took O'Kane over to San Quentin, where Warden Hoyle made the first break in O'Kane's story. The deputy responsible for the party was also present, and he had been insisting that Ruef landed in the penitentiary at 9 o'clock, but the warden told the sheriff that Ruef was not delivered to the gate until 11 o'clock. O'Kane admitted then that he had not caught the train back to San Francisco, but had stopped with Dr. Siebel at his brother's home in San Anselmo.

This concluded the first day of Eggers' "investigation." The Sheriff failed to see Dr. Stone, but says that he will try to locate him today and get the real story of the affair. Another feature of the story which the Sheriff overlooked was the matter of the bus. O'Kane asserts that when the train arrived at Greenbrae, the prison bus was not there, so they continued on to San Rafael, got a different bus, and owned up to it. It is asserted last night that the bus was there when the train arrived on Thursday, but nobody got off the train to go to the penitentiary.

The Sheriff will continue his investigation to ascertain just why Ruef was seven hours late in arriving at the penitentiary.

U. S. IN NEED OF ARMY AVIATORS

Look of Available Material Holds Up Plans for Aeroplane Division.

WASHINGTON, March 11.—Only the lack of officers available for aeronautics is holding up plans of the army signal corps' organization of a complete aviation division with twenty-four aeroplanes, officered by three majors, fifty-four captains and lieutenants and three surgeons. Every effort is being made to secure officers for training, the eligible list having been opened even to officers of the militia, and it is believed that the division can be formed in the coming summer. No doubt is entertained that Congress will provide money for the purchase of additional machines when they are needed.

Brigadier General Allen, chief signal officer, today outlined the proposed plan of organization. The idea is to have each aeroplane company operating four aeroplanes, composed of nine officers and twelve enlisted men, besides a property sergeant, clerk, cook and assistant cook. There would be six companies, divided into three battalions, each battalion under a major and each having its own surgeon.

Pure Mountain Water Is Guaranteed, but Well Water Is Supplied; Statement Regarding Earnings Is Denied

MELROSE, March 11.—Plans for a volunteer fire company in the Steinway Terrace district were discussed at a meeting of the Steinway Terrace Improvement Club on Saturday night. The club members, who met at the club center, Boulevard avenue and Merri street, considered the erection of a temporary firehouse and garage and outfit a permanent building in the district.

President James A. Thomas of the club suggested that if the city could be induced to furnish a sufficient quantity of fire hose after the club members had erected a structure and secured a reel wagon, he believed the club members could be organized into a volunteer company. The matter will be considered at a later meeting.

President Thomas and Major E. A. Woodward reported to the club on the work of the Alameda County Civic Association, to which they were delegates, asking the co-operation of the individual club members in setting aside contributions on property in the district.

Colonel M. C. Ogden then addressed the organization on the alleged violation of contract by the Union Water Company with consumers in the district. He spoke in part as follows:

"The Bay Cities Water Company signed nearly 16,000 contracts with water users of the transbay cities, in which they are bound for ten years. These contracts were signed under printed representations by the company in which they guaranteed to supply them with absolutely pure mountain water from the high water sheds of Mount Hamilton, which sheds are in part claimed by the said company, although their title is disputed by the Spring Valley Water Company.

"Now, this statement does not agree with the sworn statements which are being filed with the mayor and city council by indignant water users, who say the Union Water Company has been charging them exorbitant prices."

"Also a copy of a bill which I paid, showing a charge of \$1.50 for 127 $\frac{1}{2}$  gallons of water used by me. I respectfully ask your honorable council to grant me relief, as neighbors are paying less rates. Very truly yours, W. A. SAPPINGTON, Redding St., Fremont Tract, Oakland, California.

"Affidavit, General-State of California, County of Alameda, City of Oakland, W. A. Sappington, being first duly sworn, deposes and says: I own a piece of property on the south side of Redding street, in the Fremont tract, Alameda district. I am now buying water from the Union Water Company of California. During the past year the said water company has advertised in the papers that you pay for what water you use."

"My water bill each month is a dollar and fifty cents. My water bill rendered November 29, 1911, showed a service of 17 cubic feet or 127 $\frac{1}{2}$  gallons of water, for which I paid \$1.50, or at the rate of \$11 per 1000 gallons."

"W. A. SAPPINGTON.

"Subscribed and sworn to before me, R. E. Reeves, notary public, in and for the county of Alameda, state of California, personally appeared W. A. Sappington, known to me to be the person who is described in the within instrument, on this 2d day of March, 1912.

"(Notary Seal). R. E. REEVES, Notary Public, in and for Alameda County, State of California.

"The conclusion," Colonel Ogden said, "is to want to say that the attempt to substitute well water, under the conditions described, for the promised absolutely pure mountain water, renders these contracts not worth the paper they are written on, and I repeat, that the deception in claiming that customers only pay for what water they use, and then charging them a flat minimum rate, and the further misrepresentation as to the amount of water sold daily, to sell the bonds of this company are questions for rigid investigation by the state public utility commission, and stamp the corporation as unworthy of confidence or support by the people."

MRS. BREWER GETS 13 YEARS IN PRISON

Woman Convicted of Murder
In Second Degree Gets
Heavy Sentence.

Mrs. Mary L. Brewer, convicted of murder in the second degree, in Tennessee with the death of Mrs. W. J. Ennis, last September, following a criminal operation, this morning was sentenced to thirteen years in San Quentin by Judge Ellsworth. She will appeal, according to notice filed by her attorney, Ian S. Church, after the sentence was imposed.

Church made a last desperate effort to have sentence suspended when the woman was brought into court this morning. He began by motioning for a new trial on statutory grounds, and filed an affidavit urging this procedure. Assistant District Attorney W. H. L. Munn came back with another affidavit.

Church then gave notice of appeal from the order denying the trial, and moved for a stay of judgment in view of the appeal. The motion was denied, and the judge then imposed sentence.

Mrs. Brewer was badly shaken by the verdict of the jury last week, and in a nervous condition, but prepared for the sentence, there being little doubt that it would be imposed today. Church had made by Church to have it delayed.

Mrs. Brewer's case is the first in the county where a conviction had been secured in a criminal operation case. The woman is accused of having performed the operation which, last September, caused the death of Mrs. J. W. Ennix in Berkeley. The trial extended over two weeks, expert evidence being called in to prove the defense attorney's contention that the victim, Mrs. Brewer, lived in Melrose, and engaged in the business of midwife.

Church will file an appeal at once, and the woman probably will be kept in the county jail until the result of this known, after which, in case the petition is denied, she will be sent to San Quentin.

Mrs. Brewer came into court this morning dressed in black, and was surrounded by the attorneys, who batted motions and notices of appeal. As the judge pronounced sentence she fell back in her chair, almost fainting, and wept copiously on being taken back to the county jail.

The gravity of the sentence was a surprise to the attorneys, who expected a lighter penalty to be imposed.

ROGERS' COUNSEL ASSERT INNOCENCE

Attorneys Declare Some One Else Could Have Committed Crime.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 11.—Attorney Cardwell of Oakland, and Attorney B. C. Conway, counsel for John S. Rogers, charged with the murder of George Goodmann, salesman for the Brilliant Jewelry company, spent the entire morning in arguing for the acquittal of their client. Letting the blame for the crime, Rogers, who may have slain the salesman and robbed him of the $4,000 worth of jewelry that he carried and then hid his body in the basement of the San Francisco Produce company, the defense sought to convince the jurors of Rogers' innocence. They held that it was possible that someone else in the employ of the produce company might have done the deed and tried to tear asunder the fabric of the testimony sewn together by the prosecution.

At the afternoon session Assistant District Attorney Bremmer argued for loss than an hour and it is expected that by 4 o'clock the case will have been in the hands of the jury.

The discovery of Goodmann's body beneath a pile of grape skins at Oregon and Front streets, the head having been beaten in with hatchet bashed the police last November, and resulted in a rigid investigation, culminating with the arrest of Rogers by Detective Mackay, the discovery that he had parts of the jewelry in his possession and that it was his own hatchet that was used by the murderer.

As REFEREE THIS
BAKER IS FAILURE

Louis Schmidt Is Arrested for Interfering With Police Officers.

Louis Schmidt, a baker who was arrested last evening when he attempted to prevent two police officers from stopping a fist fight between two citizens, was arraigned before Judge Arthur C. Johnson, and it was then decided to set over to tomorrow morning to plead. Schmidt was represented by Attorney L. D. Manning.

Peter Wallman and William Tasher found two men fighting a championship battle at Eighth and Wood streets at 8 o'clock. They approached and took a hand in the row.

"You are under arrest," they told the pair. The fighters stopped their mauling and gave themselves up.

Then Schmidt reeled out from a nearby saloon and announced that there would be no arrest while he was around.

"You are under arrest," he said again, "for interfering with an officer," the patrolmen told Schmidt.

Then an interesting battle began, in which Wallman and Tasher attempted to stop Schmidt from interfering.

They succeeded in overpowering the latter, but the men first arrested escaped in the混战.

KAISER IS HOST TO GOETHALS PRAISES PANAMA CANAL WORK

Woman Convicted of Murder
In Second Degree Gets
Heavy Sentence.

LIEUTENANT COLONEL GEORGE W. GOETHALS, U. S. A., who is chief engineer of the Panama canal construction.

German Emperor Declares Locks Too Small, but Is Satisfied Otherwise

BERLIN, March 11.—Lieut.-Col. Geo. W. Goethals, U. S. A., chief engineer of the Panama canal, was the guest of the emperor yesterday at luncheon. The empress, Princess Victoria Luise; the minister of marine, Admiral von Tirpitz, and the minister of public works, Herr von Breitenbach, also were present. Colonel Goethals later praised the emperor, not as a war lord, but as a pleasant host. In the discussion of the Panama canal he found that the emperor was surprisingly conversant with every detail of the work.

"I was personally introduced to your steam shovels in the northeast sea canal," the emperor explained.

He praised the Panama construction, added Colonel Goethals, but asked,

"Why did you not make the locks as wide as the Kaiser Wilhelm canal?"

The colonel replied that they were wide enough for the biggest existing war vessels, and the emperor said:

"Yes, now. When we built the Kaiser Wilhelm locks they suffered for that period, but we have had to expend much money on them since."

KEEL LAID FOR ADDITION TO BIG TOWBOAT FLEET

'Peep' to Be Launched From Local Yards;
Big Freighter Kosmos Docks

The keel for a new 23-foot craft of the towboat class was laid this morning at the Carlson ways. The new craft is being built for the Oakland Launch and Towboat Company, and will be an important addition to an already large fleet of towing vessels. She will be 28 feet over all, will have a 7½-foot beam and a draft of three feet. She will be propelled by a 10-horse power Corliss gas engine and will be a single screw affair.

The new tug will be known as the Peep. She will be electric lighted throughout, having her own plant aboard. A powerful searchlight will be put on her pilot house, which will be built well forward. Her hull will be constructed of pine and finished in hard wood. Although the Peep is a rather diminutive craft, she will be used as a despatch boat.

The last vessel to leave the ways to join the company's fleet was the Cleek. Peep, a younger vessel, was named in accordance with her age. The Oakland Launch and Towboat Company are building another vessel of the towboat class. The latest vessel is the Colon and from present plans it is hoped to launch her some time next week.

Arriving yesterday afternoon from Hamburg, Germany, by way of the Straits of Magellan and coast ports, was the big Kosmos. She is in charge of Captain Paesler, who reports a rough passage. While the big freighter was running up the South American coast, she stopped at several ports and when off Mexico she ran into the port of Mazatlan.

The steam schooner Charles Nelson, Captain Hansen, arrived yesterday from Everett and tied up at the Sunbeam lumber company's wharf. The Nelson had been en route to Oahu, Hawaii, when she arrived at this port. The tow was under control during the entire run and both vessels came into port without trouble. The Kellogg is in charge of Captain Olsen. The Nelson is discharging lumber.

The Oakland Launch and Towboat company's freighter the Pirate left this morning for Seattle with the 2000 Wing all wing in tow.

The Nautilus also of the Oakland Launch and Towboat company, left this morning for Oahu where she will pick up several oil barges for here.

The tug Panama of same fleet left this morning for the river where she will act as a tender to the dredge Caledonia for the next week.

BANDIT SUCCEEDS IN ELUDING POLICE

All Trace of George Houghton
Lost and Police Admit
They Are at Sea.

Description of George Houghton, wanted for $2600 robbery on street of San Francisco;

An Englishman, speaks with a decided accent slightly over six feet tall, weight 100 pounds, age 32 to 35 years, complexion fair, tattoo marks on right arm, polished in manner, of an engaging disposition.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 11.—Although forty-two hours have elapsed since Harry Levy, paymaster and cashier of the McNab & Smith Draying Company and Martin Armstrong, the timekeeper, were bound in a lonely barn after being held up on the public streets, the police confessed themselves without a single clue as to the whereabouts of the culprit.

Not only are every one of the 900 police officers and detectives of San Francisco on the lookout for George Houghton, discharged chauffeur for James McNab, who is accused by Levy and Armstrong of the crime, but nearly 200 employees of McNab & Smith, who know the chauffeur, are keeping an eye open as they go about their work. Houghton has little chance of escape should he set foot in San Francisco, as the terms of McNab & Smith are all over the city and there are few of the drivers who have not seen the chauffeur at one time or another.

The police have been unable to get a single line on the robber. From the moment that he left his victims standing against the board walls of the barn, he has dropped from sight. The theory of the upper office men is that he took a train for the south and is in some other city of the State.

Today handbills are being circulated about the coast cities and in the interior to warn police officials to be on the lookout for the much-wanted man.

Yesterday the police learned that Houghton had been arrested at Burlingame several weeks ago and they think he may have been in trouble before.

The Blancos were divorced. Mrs. Elva Blanco being given the control of the child who was supported by the husband and father. On January 9 Mrs. Blanco died and her mother, Mrs. T. Castro of Vallejo, alleges that she willed the child before she passed away.

After her death the husband took the child one to his brother's home where, on January 13, he alleged Mrs. Castro got the custody of her by means of a pretext and has since refused to give her up. The Mayor of Vallejo and numbers of prominent citizens were in court today to testify as to Blanco's good character.

CHIEF WHITE MAKES CHANGES IN FORCE

SAN FRANCISCO, March 11.—Chief of Police White, who has made more changes and more frequent shifts than any previous head of the department, announced several new transfers this morning. Detective James Pearl was relieved from duty in the upper office and sent to the street his place being taken by Lt. Patrick J. Gallagher of Company A, whose work in the bureau several years ago earned him great commendation. Corporal Percy Smith from Company O, Kelley, was promoted to sergeant. The Kelley is in charge of Captain Olsen. The Nelson is discharging lumber.

During the run up from the German port Captain Paesler declares that his vessel was subject to several heavy storms, which did no damage.

The Aeolian steamed over to this side yesterday afternoon and tied up at Long Wharf. She is discharging 1000 tons of nitre. Double gangs are at work in her hatches and it is hoped that she will be able to sail for Seattle and Portland the latter part of this week.

FREIGHTER DOCKS.

Another big vessel to come in yesterday was the Dollar freighter, Bessemer. The Bessemer came from Hongkong, China, and is in charge of Captain Cross. According to the Orient the passage from the Orient was reported to have been smooth.

On the Bessemer's arrival she tied up at Long Wharf where she will discharge a iron ton cargo of cotton. The cargo is a product of the cotton from which the Bessemer comes.

KNIFE-MAN STABS VICTIM 15 TIMES

Aged Property Owner Found in Pool of Blood; Assailant Is Sought.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 11.—Lying on the floor of his home at 30 John street, at 9:10 this morning Joseph Kunauer, a well-to-do property owner, 50 years old, was found in a pool of blood with 15 knife wounds in his face.

A real estate agent, who called at Kunauer's house this morning, discovered the man in a semi-conscious condition and but for his timely visit it is probable that the man would have succumbed from his injuries.

Two police officers were called in and an ambulance summoned. When the man had been taken to the Harbor hospital Dr. Zumwalt discovered that he had been stabbed with a pen knife. There were 15 incisions on the head, chest, face and arms. None of them however, were deep enough to cause death unless blood poisoning should set in.

On being questioned by the hospital attaches after he had been restored to consciousness Kunauer was found to be unable to speak English. An interpreter was summoned but proved unable to converse with the patient. By gestures the injured man indicated that he had been assaulted.

Kunauer owns a three story flat building in front of his home and considerable other property in the district.

NO INDIGESTION OR SICK STOMACH

Gas, Heartburn, Dyspepsia and All Misery in Stomach Vanishes.

Take your sour, cut-or-order stomach—or maybe you call it Indigestion, Dyspepsia, Gastritis or Catarrh of Stomach, it doesn't matter—take your stomach trouble right with you to your Pharmacist and ask him to open a 50-cent case of Paul's Diapepsin and let you eat one 25-grain Trilegtule and see if within five minutes there is left any trace of your former misery.

The correct name for your trouble is Food Fermentation—food souring, the Digestive organs become weak there is lack of gastric juice; your food is only half digested, and you become affected with loss of appetite, pressure and fullness after eating, vomiting, nausea, heartburn gripping in bowels, tenderness in the pit of stomach, bad taste, constipation, pain in liver, indigestion, loss of sleep, dullness, sick headache, weariness, dizziness or many other similar symptoms.

If your appetite is fickle and nothing tempts you, or you belch gas, or if you feel bloated after eating, or your food feels like a lump of lead on your stomach, you can make up your mind that at the bottom of all this there is but one cause—Fermentation of indigestible food.

Prove to yourself in five minutes that your stomach is as good as any, that there is nothing really wrong. Stop this fermentation and begin eating what you want without fear of discomfort or misery.

Almost instant relief is waiting for you. It is merely a matter of how soon you take a little Diapepsin.

PLAN TO AMEND OHIO'S CHARTER

Voters of State to Pass Upon Proposed Changes in Organic Law.

COLUMBUS, Ohio, March 11.—Parreaching changes in the organic law of the state will be submitted to the voters of Ohio next fall. Delegates to the constitutional convention now in session today established that probably thirty amendments to the charter of the convention would be submitted.
In the nine weeks of deliberation by the convention since January 9 four important propositions have been approved for submission.

Chief among the amendments so far proposed is one providing for woman suffrage.

In passing an amendment to provide for the licensing of the liquor traffic, delegates expressed themselves as believing they had settled the question which has caused the greatest political discussion in the state during the last sixty years. The license proposal adopted would limit the trade to one-half of the population, prohibits bewarey owned saloons, and preserves all existing local option laws. Leaders both of temperance and liquor organizations have said they would not oppose the amendment.

Two other amendments approved by the convention provide for the construction of a modern system of highways and reform of the jury system.

Under the jury amendment, the unanimity rule for verdicts will be abolished in civil cases and verdicts will be rendered by three-fourths of a jury.

LEGAL PROFESSION IS MECCA OF GRADUATES

PRINCETON, N. J., March 11.—Records obtained from fifteen classes at Princeton for the twenty years preceding 1905 show that a surprising number of graduates become lawyers. The numbers were nearly three times greater than the totals for either teaching, engineering or medicine. Of late years, however, the number of graduates choosing the legal profession has fallen off considerably, and there is a corresponding increase in those years in favor of business. One-third of the total number of graduates engaged in business are in banking.

MME. CHAMBELLAN SCORES TRIUMPH AT THE BELL

"The Four Ball Players," who are Vaudeville League.

That vaudeville is sometimes lifted even above a plane it makes pretense of occupying was never better illustrated than yesterday when Mme. Chambellan, a dramatic soprano who was a star of the French grand opera company, came to the Bell theater for a week's engagement.

IT IS "PLAY BALL."

Which of the four ball players makes that home run we don't remember, but it is a scorch and original, at that. In fact, originally bubbles from the act, along with baseball slang, baseball nonsense and baseball chatter. There is also baseball harmony, quartet work to be accurate, that tickled immensely yesterday's audiences. The boys who are batting 400 in the Bell league, this week, are ball stars, all of them. George Crable saw service with the Brooklyn National leaguers, as pitcher; William Gleason was third baseman for Dallas, the left field claimed G. Robinson of San Antonio and Thomas Dillon was shortstop for Macon.

Harry Von Fossen, minister man, is of the old school, but hasn't brought Miller with him from that honored institution of learning. We are thus insured against veteran jokes and ages-old mannerisms. Von Fossen laughs at himself but may be excused for it, inasmuch as everybody else giggles with him.

Princess Luba Miroff deserves credit for getting the weak sections of her act off her hands easily. After disposing of her mandolin, another semi-musical instrument, and hiding her tights beneath a gown or two, she gets down to the business of entertaining the audience and succeeds.

If you would know how much kid blood is left in you, go and watch Albert Donnelly make shadowgraphs, with the aid of his two hands and an electric light.

Donnelly proves himself an expert shad-owist and adds a novelty to the bill. Kitty

Ross, the girl from Alabama, with numerous songs, is pleasing. Motion pictures wind up entertainment of a lively order.

DEAFENING APPLAUSE.

Yesterday's audiences at the Bell re-

The Division of the Rowells.

The disorderly and curiously disconnected and involved vaticinations which the Fresno Republican has indulged in of late are at last explained. Chester H. Rowell, the putative editor of the paper, is out with a statement that all the directors of the Republican save himself will support Taft.

Rowell and the Republican will continue to support Roosevelt. In other words, the paper will support Roosevelt, but the men who own it will personally support Taft.

Which reminds us of what Lord Macaulay said of the policy pursued by the Scotch nobles during the turbulent period that ended at Culloden. In every civil war or other internal disturbance, said Macaulay, the head of the house and his heir took opposite sides, so that the title and estates would remain in the family no matter which side won. That seems to be the only plausible explanation of the fact that the Fresno Republican supports one candidate while the proprietors support his opponent.

Dr. Chester Rowell, Mayor of Fresno and Regent of the State University, is the principal owner of the Republican (we understand he owns a controlling interest) and took a prominent part in organizing a Taft club. His nephew, Chester Rowell, is editor of the Republican and chairman of the Roosevelt League of California. A few weeks ago the same Chester Rowell was chairman of the La Follette League of California and the Republican was advocating Robert M. La Follette for the Republican Presidential nomination.

No wonder the Republican straddles and wobbles and side-steps like a hen with the blind staggers. Editorially the paper is trying to prove that its owners are "dangerous reactionaries," enemies to progress and service tools of the predatory interests. Speaking in their proper persons the owners say they are for clean, capable, progressive government such as William Howard Taft has given the country, and for the policies and principles of the Republican party. But the paper which they own and whose policy they direct says precisely the reverse.

Such is Rowellism.

Each week Dr. George C. Pardee, writing over his nom de plume, "The Wayfarer," pours out the vials of his wrath on Thomas B. Dozier, former district attorney of Shasta county, whom he calls by a variety of hard names. The cause of Dr. Pardee's animosity is well known; but he would add to the interest of his persistent denunciation by explaining why he appointed the said Thomas B. Dozier Superior Judge. Dozier declined the appointment, but that does not matter—Pardee appointed him. Yet Dozier's political affiliations were as well known then as they are now. Why did Pardee appoint him?

Berkeley's Busybody Mayor.

The Socialist Mayor of Berkeley has come down into Oakland to advocate the recall of the Mayor of this city. Because the police of Oakland have broken up and suppressed political assemblages that were obstructing the streets in violation of the law Stitt Wilson comes here and tells the citizens of this town that they should recall Mayor Mott.

Socialist agitators have come over from San Francisco, to second the demand for the recall of the Oakland commissioners made by Stitt Wilson and H. C. Tuck. These men omit to mention the fact that the persons who provoked the collision between the police and the street orators of the I. W. W. came to this city for the avowed purpose of breaking the ordinance and defying the police. They came looking for trouble. Deliberately did they make a disturbance that a pretext might be given for the action they now propose to take.

The claim that the right of free speech and peaceable assembly is denied here is a false pretense, as every intelligent person in this community is aware. Freedom of speech and assembly is not infringed because professional agitators are not permitted to hold political meetings in the principal thoroughfares, blocking traffic and disturbing the peace of people who are using the streets for a lawful and legitimate purpose.

The Socialists have the same right to hold meetings and express their views that other people have—no more, no less. If all parties insisted upon blocking the streets with political mass meetings, disorder and riot would inevitably ensue. Some of the Socialist orators use filthy and profane language calculated to provoke a disturbance. Not only do they offend decency, but they outrage religious feelings, and by speaking in the streets compel people who wish to avoid them and their meetings to hear sentiments which are repugnant to their ideas of propriety.

This is what the Mayor of Berkeley comes to Oakland to defend. He obtrudes himself in the affairs of this city to demand that peripatetic agitators, who make a business of creating disturbance, be allowed to block the highways in the heart of the business district at their pleasure.

This same Wilson went to Los Angeles to defend assassins and tell the people there that they should elect a friend of assassins Mayor. He thrust himself into the municipal campaign of San Francisco, and appears everywhere as the champion of disorganization and disorder. His presence in Oakland is an impertinence. His errand here is impudent and insolent. The people of Berkeley should recall him—at least, from Oakland.

At last a set of Southern officers have had the resolution and courage to prevent a white mob from lynching negro prisoners. In Jacksonville, Florida, the Sheriff and his deputies held a mob at bay and proved that mobs can be repelled if officers will only do their duty. It is to be hoped the example set will not be lost on other officials in the South. Jacksonville has risen in estimation abroad because the law has been courageously upheld there in the face of mob violence.

Everything in Oakland is progressing rapidly save work on the city hall. In the construction of that edifice a degree of wide leisure is exhibited that by comparison would make a Mexican's manana take on the aspect of wild haste. At present all hands are taking a vacation for some reason not clear to the public.

Roosevelt still denies that he is a candidate. He is merely willing to accept a nomination. According to Dr. Lyman Abbott, he only wants a third cup of coffee. Truth takes on strange aspects when viewed through the lens of unbridled ambition.

"Pasadena has received more rain than any town in the State," boasts the Star. Sure, it needs rain. Pasadena is a "dry" town: Old Probs may have thought it needed a bath.

AMBITION

BY THE OAKLAND TRIBUNE CARTOONIST

Amundsen's Account of His Polar Trip.

Captain Amundsen's account of his journey to the South Pole is so clear, direct and concise as to carry the conviction that the narrative is truthful. The details which were so conspicuously lacking in the long-winded narratives of Peary and Cook are supplied by him with fidelity which carries the impress of truth. His story is so simple, plain and straightforward that every step of his journey can be followed without interruption.

Captain Amundsen tells where he was every day from the time he started on his dash to the pole. The observations taken from day to day are given, and by taking a map one can trace his movements with ease. Neither Peary nor Cook gave such exact details. All the world now believes that Cook faked the story of his alleged journey to the North Pole, but it is a singular fact that his story of the last stages of his mythical journey coincides closely with Peary's. In both narratives there is a hazy lack of essential detail.

Amundsen appears to have guarded against criticism on that score. He took five men with him to the pole, and stayed there three days taking observations. Apparently, he accurately verified the location of the pole and provided himself with data that would fully bear out his story of the discovery.

As he found no traces of Captain Scott and his party, it is fair to presume that the English explorer had not reached the pole up to December 17, the day that Amundsen set out on his return journey. Had Scott discovered the pole prior to Amundsen's arrival he would have left unmistakable evidences of his visit, erected some memorial to signalize his discovery. The absence of any memorial confirms the Norwegian's right of original discovery. It is to be hoped that Scott reached his goal and will return in safety.

The Italians are using two kinds of dogs in Tripoli, the war dogs proper and the so-called custom house dogs. The latter for some time past have successfully co-operated with the customs guards at the frontiers to prevent smuggling. They have been specially trained to attack anybody carrying a pack, and as smugglers as a rule try to cross the boundary with contraband goods in sacks the dogs are very useful. It is hoped that it will prove comparatively easy to train these dogs for use at Tripoli in catch Arab rebels.

Besides the 30 custom house dogs sent to Tripoli for outpost duty, Captain Giulini Gustafini has recently been ordered to the front with 20 bloodhounds trained by him in one of the forts near Rome. These dogs will be used to carry messages on the battlefield or from the outposts to headquarters. The message is written on a piece of redbedded and hooked to a dog's collar.

Twenty Years Ago Today

Live Oak Lodge of Masons listened last night to a lecture on "A Pilgrimage About Moriah, and What I Saw There," by Rev. G. W. Sweeney, pastor of the First Christian church and chaplain of the Lodge. The Lodge also conferred the first degree on a number of candidates.

Rev. A. C. Bane, pastor of Ashbury Methodist Church South, opened a Gospel meeting this afternoon in a large tent on San Pablo avenue. He was assisted in the work by Rev. R. S. Marshall.

Captain R. M. Roberts was awarded damages today in the Superior Court for injuries received in the Webster street drawbridge accident. He was awarded $7500.

The members of Agricultural District, No. 1, held a meeting at the rooms of the Alameda County World's Fair Association and set the date for the annual meeting of the organization for August 15, at the Oakland Trotting park.

A concert was held this afternoon in Hamilton hall for the benefit of the Rescue Home at Beulah park. Miss Bell was the pianist. The concert was patterned after the English ballad concert.

The board of works awarded contracts today for the supplying of goods to be used during the coming election. The contracts included awards for printing, ballot boxes and stationery.

Roosevelt a Dangerous Man

If the majority of the voters of the United States want Theodore Roosevelt to be the next President, they can have him. He is a dangerous man—far more dangerous than ever before in his public life—but let the majority rule.

Mr. Roosevelt is now an avowed and aggressive candidate for the Republican nomination. "I will accept," he announces in his answer to the eight Republican governors. That is to say, he will fight for it. The question is thus put squarely up to those voters who maintain an allegiance to the Republican party. Their decision will come first. If they repudiate President Taft and his administration and make Mr. Roosevelt their candidate, then the question will be put before the entire electorate. It is well to remember that the Republican party is not the American people.

Nor does Mr. Roosevelt appeal to the people regardless of party lines. His decision to accept the nomination will be adhered to, he says, "until the convention has expressed its preference," and simultaneously comes the announcement from the Roosevelt headquarters in Washington that, in case he should be defeated in the Republican convention, he would refuse to head any independent ticket. It is, of course, impossible to place any faith whatever in any political promise he may make now or in the future, in view of his repudiation of his anti-third term pledge "Let us forget." Here it is again—that memorable pledge.

"The wise custom which limits the president to two terms regards the substance and not the form, and under no circumstances will I be a candidate for or accept another nomination."

With that solemn pledge now cavalierly thrown aside as of no more consequence than a refusal to accept coffee three times at breakfast, how can we ever trust his pledges again? If Mr. Roosevelt should not be nominated by the Republican party, no one can be sure that he would not then be inspired to head a "people's movement." But, meanwhile and now, he emerges from the dignified and honorable retirement of a former president to answer—what? The "call of the people"? Not at all. The call of a party? Not even that. He emerges from his retirement in response to the call of a mere fraction of the party.

That is what the eight governors represent. Behind them is a mere fraction of a fraction of the American people and Mr. Roosevelt thinks that speaking through them is the voice of God. How he came to that conclusion we cannot understand unless being a spoiled darling of fortune finally turns a man's head.

Mr. Roosevelt should be congratulated upon the commendable brevity of his letter to the governors. There is nothing else in connection with so fatiguing an act. A period of bitter and ugly strife has been opened in our politics. Passions will run high before the new Caesar gains control of the government again. Undoubtedly it is a personal undertaking in the interest of democracy, and tragic in some way the end of the reckless adventure may prove to be—Springfield (Mass.) Republican.

A HERO JUST THE SAME

He is rather dull of speech and his hair is long and shaggy.

And his manner when in company is tame.

His shoes are seldom polished and his trousers always baggy.

But to her he is a hero, just the same.

He would not impress you greatly, there's no snap or vim about him.

And I don't believe you'd ever ask his name.

But she's told her doting parents that she cannot live without him,

And to her he is a hero, just the same.

And it makes no difference either what a lot of us think of him.

And it doesn't matter if he misses fame; We may think he is inspired, but a maid has learned to love him,

And to her he is a hero just the same.

BROADER CULTURE URGED FOR WOMEN

Pastor Rails at Suffragists Who Read "Pussy-Cat" Magazines.

"There are many women who read nothing but the pussy-cat magazines. They must learn to read more substantial literature now than they have been enthralled." So declared Rev. Arthur A. John, last evening in his sermon at the First Congregational Church on "How Shall Women Prepare Themselves for Citizenship?"

"The first woman's suffrage movement in history began probably that day when Deborah, the prophetess, went out and began to dwell under the palm tree and judge Israel. She didn't seek the publicity of the palm tree, and there were undoubtedly wise critics who pointed out how she would lose her womanhood if she thus allowed herself to be dragged into politics. But Deborah was a plucky soul, who went on her wits; her country needed her, and the result was that Israel was saved and the song of victory Deborah sang is the oldest chapter in all the Bible."

"It has been said that the symbol of womanhood in most ages of the world is the pin. She has to do with little things and her life is filled with petty interests. The Woman's Page in the newspaper abounds in recipes for saving pennies. How absurd it would be to start a Man's Page on the same lines, telling the men, for example, how to make a sweet little knicknack for the wall or the office out of an old spinning bowl, or how to realize the necessities of economy by using a castoff vest turned inside out. Men would feel themselves insulted. But now that women are entering more prominently into public affairs, no longer will she be permitted to occupy her mind so largely with insignificant things. She will have to educate herself in the same themes that have occupied her lord and master, tariff and currency and taxation, and who doubts but that she will succeed in these larger fields quite as well as he?

"Enfranchised women must accept the summons to a broader culture that comes with her new political privilege. She should form in the newspaper habit of reading the news. She must not be so showy-sighted, though, as to read only one newspaper. She should read two of differing political stripe. She should become acquainted with the concrete politics served up in the muck-making magazine. She should read regularly such periodicals as tell of social reform movements. She should insist that the dinner table conversation has to do with bigger topics than whether the lawn needs to be mowed.

"The citizenship of woman will inject a new element of intelligent conscience into the present movement toward political democracy. She will vote for her home and her children. She will have the broad vision of the public good sometimes while her husband will not catch that vision. The immigrant entering New York harbor sees a wonderful statue of Liberty. That statue is the statue of a woman. With the help of her womanhood, our land will move on into a perfection of liberty and an intelligence of citizenship not known hitherto."

PRESIDENT FALLIERES REVIEWS PARIS TROOPS

PARIS, March 11.—French people of late have shown increasing interest in the army, more especially in the military parades and other evidences of activity on the part of armed forces. Enthusiasm reached a high pitch last evening when President Fallieres, in the presence of the members of the Cabinet and the 200,000 spectators, reviewed the Paris garrison at the Bois de Vincennes. Great crowds cheered the appearance of ten military aeroplanes and two dirigibles which went through a number of maneuvers.

'NIGHT FOLLIES' ARE MANY, MUSICAL AND VERY MERRY

MISS LOTTIE O'MALLEY, soprano, with "Night Follies of San Francisco," at Macdonough Theater.

CAST OF CHARACTERS.

The Guide ..... Willard Louis Herman Goesselspratz, a wealthy German ..... Lew Dunbar Arthur Asker, a college student ..... Phil Furman Dolly Dancer, his sweetheart ..... Little O'Malley Faney Date, her chum ..... Elizabeth Meyers Senorita Courdroy, a Spanish dancer ..... Frances Cooper Molly Marston, from the Bijou Theatre ..... Thelma DuChene Harry Orcutt ..... James Bayles Pipe Mender ..... Lee Bence

There were a few night follies who were not present at the Macdonough last night, among them being those loyal Oaklanders who spent the evening at the theaters across the bay.

Despite them, however, a good-sized house greeted Lubelski's "Night Follies of San Francisco" and due honor was accorded efforts that were more successful than not. "Night Follies" is just what its name indicates—vaudeville with a thread of a plot to bind it together.

The extravaganza is in three scenes, the first being a representation of the grand old Grant avenue and Market streets, where party of tourists are seen making their way through the city under the direction of a guide, later they are taken to Chinatown, where they fall in with a crowd of Berkeley students and finally in the third scene they visit one of the well-known cafes.

The touring party consists of a wealthy German, Herman Goesselspratz; Harry Asker, a young student; May Marston, Faney Date and several other friends. They got separated during the tour, and numerous amusing situations result.

OCCUR NATURALLY.

Briefly told, "Night Follies of San Francisco" embraces all the happenings which might naturally occur in any large city where one takes a tour under the guidance of an official guide.

Some fifteen or more musical numbers and vaudeville acts are introduced during the action of this skit and several dances, Miss Zilz appearing in one of the specially featured acts with twelve dancing girls in highly colored and illuminated costumes, in the "Dance of a Million Diamonds."

Another feature is Don Tin Yaw and Chan Shu Ying and their company of eight Chinese appearing in Scotch Highland songs and up-to-date ragtime. An octette of Texas Tommy Dancers, with some unique electrical effects, is headed by Phil Furman, described as the peer of all ragtime singers and dancers. Lew Dunbar is seen in a new German act.

Willard Louis appears as the character impersonator.

"Life is not meant to be spent merely in eating, drinking and making merry. It has a serious meaning. We ought not to compare it to a comedy. Life is no comedy. Life is a drama, a tragedy from birth until death. A battle which is never drawn; it is either victory or defeat. Victory means heaven—an eternity of happiness. Defeat means hell—an eternity of torment."

Life is a drama, a tragedy from birth until death. A battle which is never drawn; it is either victory or defeat. Victory means heaven—an eternity of happiness. "TYRANNY OF BODY."

"There are some men who are never awake to the real meaning of life. They scarcely know that they have a soul; that they ever stand the presence of Almighty God. These men live for the body. The body is the prison which is the noble part of man, is made the king, and being crowned, tyrannizes over the soul. Thus it happens that the soul, to many, is insignificant, is chained down, stifled, it cannot get out of its skin. But then comes the time when these souls chained and stifled as they are will rise in their native life, and lift up their voices and demand: 'Why do you stifle me? why do you bind me? because I am immortal! I am your soul; you cannot destroy me; you may put me aside, smother me but I shall arise again. We shall meet at the time the races are called the sun would be shining. If it rains the races will be postponed until tomorrow afternoon.'

"CORONADO, Cal., March 11.—With the prospect of slight showers in the next twelve hours, preparation for the polo races, in which nine well-known society women of San Francisco, New York City and London, will ride, were begun this morning in the hope that by the time the races are called the sun would be shining. If it rains the races will be postponed until tomorrow afternoon.

"Interest centers on the sixth and seventh races in which the riders and their ponies will be Miss Eleanor Sears, white; Miss C. W. Ward, peacock; Mrs. Walter Dupre, pink; Mrs. S. H. Verner, and white dots; green cap; Lady Verner, and white dots; green cap; Miss Jennie Crocker, peacock blue; Miss Georgine Leadbetter, purple and white, and Mrs. John Borden, red.

"All attempts to learn whether the consumers will be masculine have been futile, the fair riders maintaining silence on the subject. Even Miss Sears says nothing. The other five races will be run by the players, who have taken part in the polo tournament and if the track is sufficiently dry some records are looked for.

This week will be a memorable one for weddings, when Miss Sue Harrold, Miss Roberta Gould, Miss Louise Entz and Miss Rosalie Hamilton will pledge their troth.

The wedding of Miss Roberta Gould to Warner S. Brittain will be solemnized in All Souls' Chapel, Berkeley, at noon today. An informal reception at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Gould, 25 Buena Vista way, will follow the ceremony at the church. Miss Henrietta Gould will be her sister's only attendant. After a money-making trip Britain and his bride will return to the college town to establish their home. LOOT OF BANK ROBBERS UNEARTHED IN NORTH

TACOMA, March 11.—The average Chinese's passion for gambling has brought to light nearly $10,000 more of the currency stolen from the bank of Montreal at New Westminster last September. This money, abandoned by the robbers in their flight, was traced through an intricate maze of Chinese gambling dens in New Westminster and Victoria by Paul Ahern and finally recovered.

The money was traced back to Wong Sue Chong of Victoria. Ahern says it was learned that Wong had lost heavily at gambling and had paid his debts in Canada, Australia, in Victoria, and now New Westminster. Wong was arrested and gave up $5750, all he had left of a roll the size of which he says he does not remember. Ahern is satisfied this large amount of stolen money was found by Chinese after the robbery and a division made of the spoils.

Of $271,000 stolen from the bank, $19,150 has been recovered—$5000 under a bridge, $7000 under sidewalk and $7750 from China.

DOG MUZZLING LAW IS URGED AT CAPITAL

SACRAMENTO, March 10.—Preparations are under way here to guard against a spread of rabies. As yet the disease has not been noted among dogs of Sacramento, but the state board of health advises that it may appear in the same as at Los Angeles, San Francisco and other places. The city trustees will be asked to adopt a muzzling ordinance Monday night as the first measure toward prevention of an epidemic. The state board of health has called a station here to care for persons bitten by dogs. The State will visit the city.

The trustees will be asked to call a special meeting of the state board of health to discuss the railroad men's day.

It is understood that the other two dreadnoughts will be built at Vicksburg.

CRAMPS TO CONSTRUCT RUSSIAN DREADNOUGHTS

PHILADELPHIA, March 11.—Russia has practically decided to have constructed at Cramp's shipyard two of the four 30,000-ton dreadnoughts—sea fighters exceeding in tonnage and armament any war ship now afloat or in course of construction, with which she has planned to rehabilitate the navy. Japan crushed made few years ago.

It is understood that the other two dreadnoughts will be built at Vicksburg.

TRAFFIC AGENTS TO MEET

SACRAMENTO, March 11.—The California association of Traffic Agents will hold its convention in Sacramento March 24.

About 100 traffic agents from all parts of the State will visit the city.

The agents will be shown about the city during the day.

They will plan to give their visitors a good time.

GRADUATE EARLY

SOUTH HADLEY, Mass., March 11.—Some interesting facts have been unearthed concerning Mount Holyoke graduates by Prof. Amy Hayes.

According to statistics, the average age for graduation has fallen during past decades from 23.5 and 22.7 to 21.8. Judging the future by the past, the optimistic statistician concludes that 4.4 per cent will marry out of 4,600 graduates.

Most of the husbands are 21 years old.

The percentages of the husbands are business men.

TRIBUNE SEEKS OAKLAND'S FAIREST WOMEN

SYMPHONY OF BEAUTIFUL MEMBERS OF LOCAL SMART SET HAS BEGINNING

DECISION IN HANDS OF FOUR

Mrs. Isaac Requa Chairman of Committee Composed of Well-Known Residents

Many Points to Be Taken Into Consideration by Those Who Are to Make Search

THE TRIBUNE begins today a symposium on beautiful women, in the course of which the question will be answered: "Who are the ten most beautiful women in the Oakland smart set?" THE TRIBUNE presents as its committee the following well-known women, in whose hands the final decision will rest:

Mrs. Isaac Requa,
Mrs. Charles H. King,
Mrs. John Pym Neville,
Miss Mollie E. Conners.

Mrs. Isaac Requa will be chairman of the committee and the columns will be edited by Miss Mollie E. Conners, literary editor of THE TRIBUNE.

By Mrs. Isaac Requa
It would be impossible to choose one who might be called the most beautiful woman of the smart set, because there are so many varying ideas of what constitutes a beautiful woman. But with a measurement of ten it may be possible to draw a conclusion that may be satisfactory, since there is room for many types.

Youth is often beautiful, with its charm and freshness, and the lovely young curves of the face. And among our young girls may be found some of our types of beauty. But we will just as certainly find our beautiful women among our older ones. Perhaps our ideal may be represented by some beautiful young grandmother. For Time writes a true story and Life is the greatest artist of all.

It is Life that chisels the lines that lend beauty to the face, that add nobility, that tell the story of greatness of heart and mark achievement. We all know women who might have been plain in their younger days, but who seem to us beautiful now, for the passing years have brought much that has dignified the life lines—and a face refined and spiritualized presents its own rare charm and to many it is beautiful.

The day of the doll face is done. The Greeks gave us a standard of measurement, but it was a cold, hard type. We have added much in these days to that beauty of an old civilization. With lovely lines and beautiful coloring we look for a sweet human sympathy and in eyes must shine the beauty of a lovely soul.

True womanhood demands the development of the heart, the soul, the intellect, and when they are expressed in the lines of a lovely face a woman is beautiful.

We may find many of them among our Oakland women, and a discussion along these lines can be of great value to a community, since it brings to the surface the nobler elements which make up human life, and which express the beauty of true womanhood.

—Mrs. Isaac Requa.

By Miss Mollie Conners

The Beauty Symposium cannot in any sense be called "a contest," since no woman is making an effort in any way to place her name upon a list. But she might be very pleased to find it there, since she can only feel complimented to know that she is beautiful in the eyes of some friend or of many friends. No one is to be first on the list. There are to be named ten beautiful women, all of equal rank, chosen from various types and of various ages.

There are many standards of measurement. If we copied from the old Greeks we would never choose that calm, placid Venus of Milo, but rather that splendid Winged Victory—rushing on to success.

The medieval painters gave us the wonderful Madonnas as types of beauty, and as the world has gone on we have evolved the American type—best expressed in California and in our own city. Beauty is a wonderful gift and to determine ten beautiful women a task of exceeding interest.

Already many suggestions have been received. Every one is at liberty to name the friends they think beautiful, and the final decision will rest partly on these many suggestions and on the wise judgment of the committee.

On account of the lack of space only extracts from the many letters and interviews can be printed, but they are all bright, helpful and of exceeding interest, as they help to determine the answer to the question: "Who are the ten most beautiful women?"

SOME BEAUTY SUGGESTIONS.

"A gentle reader" would respectfully suggest that one of the ten women to be selected in the beauty contest be chosen from a certain group of women who are seen a great deal together. They make a stunning picture and the group includes Mrs. William G. Henshaw, Miss. Alice Grimes, Miss Emma Farrier and Miss Florinne Brown.

They are in truth:
"Daughters of the gods, divinely fair
And most divinely tall."

THEY ARE GOOD LOOKING.

DEAR TRIBUNE: As you are looking for beautiful women, I would like to remind you of a coterie of girls who grew up together, not so very long ago, in the Lakeside neighborhood. In the group of young girls were Miss Mona Crillin, Miss Laura Crillin, Miss Lucy Moffitt, Miss Alice Moffitt, Miss Maud Edith Pope, Miss Gussie Evans, Miss Pauline Fore, Miss Genevieve Fore, Miss Florence Sharon, Miss Blanche Sharon, Miss Pauline Lohse, Miss Anita Lohse, Miss Jessie Kimble. Many of them are married now, but among them you will find some of our most beautiful young matrons.

THE TITAN TYPES.

To the Beauty Committee: In your deliberations don't forget to give due consideration to the Titan types to be found in our local smart set. Among them are to be mentioned Miss Christie Taft, Miss Dorothy Taft, Edna Prather de Fremery, stunning Mrs. John Pym Neville and Mrs. Spence

MRS. POSEY IS NEW HEAD OF EBELL CLUB

One of Youngest Members Is Chosen for Presidency of Organization.

Nominating Committee Prepares Report, Which Is Practically Election.

Officers of the Ebell Club for the coming year have been practically chosen by the nominating committee of the organization, which will make its report at the next meeting of the club. An election will follow, but the report of the committee is practically the election.

The officers this year, as formerly, are to be chosen by the promotion of each last year's officer to a higher place, with the exception that this year each officer will probably be promoted two places, on account of the fact that Mr. G. W. Kinsey, first vice-president, will not accept the higher office.

In her place the committee, it is stated, has nominated Mrs. Addison C. Posey, president of the organization. The other officers to be named in the committee's report will be as follows:

Vice-president, Mrs. Charles Leonard Smith; second vice-president, Mrs. Guy Addison; treasurer, Mrs. A. A. Denison and Mrs. Dwight Huntley.

PRESIDENT YOUNG MEMBER.

Mrs. Posey, who thus steps into the highest office of the club, is one of the youngest members of the organization, having only been a member for a little over a year. She is a member of the executive board and as second vice-president, and was one of the most popular women in the club. She took a prominent part in the different activities and sections of the club, and served on several arrangement committees in charge of club affairs.

She is the wife of Addison C. Posey of 483 Vernon avenue, and her son, Addison C. Posey, Jr., is well known in musical circles here.

As head of the club this year Mrs. Posey will have charge of many activities being planned for the season.

Seaborn began checking them over with the aid of the register and expects to present them to the city council at its meeting tomorrow.

To prevent any hitch, the recall committee carefully checked them over in the same way, that the clock is required by law to do. Less than four per cent of the pets were found imperfect and these were thrown out. The number left was still well above the number demanded by law.

Five days in which the officials are allowed in the petition may resign, will follow the presentation of the petition to the council. Thereafter the election call must be advertised and the election held within 45 days. This will bring it some time in the neighborhood of May 2, at approximately the time the liquor petitions are to be presented.

Regarding the recall petitions, Chairman Frank Cornish of the recall committee said today:

"The percentage of defective petitions was very low, so where it was for the failure of some of the registration deputies to send in certificates of registration promptly."

"The work of checking was made especially difficult because of the condition existing regarding the new registration and the registration of women."

PEOPLE TO DECIDE.

were registered for the election, so where it was for the failure of some of the registration deputies to send in certificates of registration promptly."

CHURCH MEMBERS DEMAND LETTERS

Twenty-One Parishioners Quit
Following Resignation of Rev. J. R. Perkins.

ALAMEDA, March 11.—The fire of discord in the First Christian church, which broke into a conflagration last Monday when the Rev. J. R. Perkins resigned his pulpit and four members of the board of trustees also resigned, flared up anew yesterday at the morning service when twenty-one members of the church demanded their letters of resignation that they were quit the church as the result of the trouble between a portion of the congregation and the minister over the pastor's liberal views.

Two of the twenty-one were church trustees until very late last night. These two, Mr. G. Spence and Miss Ruth Killam, The other two trustees who resigned, Dale R. King and Guy M. Brown, president and vice-president of the board of trustees, are among the twenty-one persons who left the church fold are several of the most influential and leading members of the church. Miss Killam was trustee and also superintendent of the primary department of the Sunday school. She has been a leader in all the church social activities. Miss Killam is a teacher in the Alameda schools.

The complete list of resignations is as follows: Miss Ruth Killam, Mrs. Edith Killam, Mr. and Mrs. Killam, Mr. and Mrs. G. Spence, Miss Gladys Spence, Mrs. J. E. Smith, Mrs. C. N. Jamison, Mrs. Ethel Cameron, Mrs. John Irwin, Mrs. J. H. Anderson, Mrs. A. John, Mrs. Sammie C. Price, and Mrs. R. B. Dibble, Mrs. G. W. Neils, Mrs. Loban and the Misses Loban, Miss Dellie Dibble and Miss Vera Ozan.

VACANCIES UNFILLED. The vacancies in the board of trustees were not filled yesterday as it was expected, but a meeting of the church board has been called for tonight when new trustees will probably be selected to take the places of Dale R. King, Guy M. Brown, J. G. Spence and Ruth Killam.

Other demands for letters were made on the church board tonight as Dale R. King and Guy M. Brown and others are expected to sever their connection with the church.

It is believed that Charles Burdett will be the new board president. Burdett believes that the church will be able to weather the present crisis and hold its organization together, despite the loss of many members and their financial support, which has put a burden debt on the church's laboring under.

Miss Ruth Killam says that she resigned because she believed in supporting the Rev. J. R. Perkins and that when he felt forced to give up his post, she believed that the proper thing for him to do was to quit the church with him.

Miss Killam frankly says she believes that the pastor has been persecuted by the opposition faction.

She has suffered a nervous breakdown last Monday, is still seriously making progress toward recovery, and is supported that thought of another church.

The services yesterday morning were conducted by the church choir from Oaklands.

The evening service was conducted by Rev. Mr. White of Modesto.

COLLEGE PLAY AT HIGH SCHOOL HALL

UNIVERSITY OF CALIFORNIA, March 11.—One more misunderstanding has caused a change in the plans for the Mask and Dagger production of "Captain Nooks of the Horse Marines," this time a change of the place. The play will be given at the old Auditorium instead of at Idora Park to prevent a previous conflict with a previous engagement.

The date was altered from March 15 to 14 for the benefit of the Berkeley Musical Association concert. Then it was discovered that Idora Park had already been engaged for that night and a change to the local hall was necessary.

WAS RESIDENT OF STATE FOR 60 YEARS

BERKELEY, March 11.—Funeral services will be held tomorrow for Mrs. E. B. Tibby, 60 years resident of California, who died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. E. T. B. Mills, at 2746 Derby street. Mrs. Tibby was 76 years of age, a widow of the late Elmer E. Tibby, a pioneer of San Francisco.

ALAMEDA AVIATOR IS HOME FROM TRAVELS

ALAMEDA, March 11.—Frank Bryant, the Alameda aviator, is back from a flying tour through Southern California and Arizona. He is now repairing his Curtis biplane on the Alameda marsh and may probably make another flight next Friday. Bryant, in company with Roy N. Francis of San Francisco flew at Moapa, Nevada, Thursday, Bakersfield and Phoenix. At Phoenix, Francis wrecked his machine, but repaired it and is now rebuilding his craft in Los Angeles. Bryant used an automatic balancer which was first tried out in actual flights on the Alameda marsh and says that it worked excellently. The inventor is now making a larger and sturdier in lighter and more finished form.

FUNERAL SERVICES FOR

Black, who was formerly Sally McKee, A. C.

MRS. PROCTOR SUGGESTED.

EDITOR TRIBUNE: I beg to present the name of Mrs. Frank Hunt Proctor, who was formerly Flora MacDermot, for a place in your famous list of ten. She deserves well of us for having gone across to San Francisco and wrested the Mardi Gras prize from the covetous grasp of our sisters across the bay. It was good work. We all know how jealous they are of us over there in San Francisco, and if we can beat them on their own ground all the more credit to us, for there won't be any points stretched in our favor. To be sure, the prize was for the best costume, but what are clothes without the wearer? Mrs. Proctor had to compete with all the beauties of Mrs. Crocker's Oriental ball, all of whom wore their costumes to the Mardi Gras ball. And she walked off with the prize. She must have had distinction and charm—in fact beauty of some order, to have wrested the prize from all the belles of the San Francisco Mardi Gras.

MRS. F. C. BRUNTON.

DO NOT FORGET THE BLONDIES.

EDITOR COMMITTEE: Please don't forget the blondes when you make up your list of ten. They say popular favor has veered around to the brunettes, but we would like to have our "innings" once in a while. And you have many blondes to choose from, for in our smart set are Mrs. Louis MacDermot, Mrs. Paul Dinhmore, Mrs. Harry Chickering, Miss Maud Edith Pope, Miss Ernestine McNear, Miss Lilla Lovell, Mrs. Lorraine Langstroth, Mrs. A. F. Merriman, Mrs. Robert Fitzgerald, Miss Albertine Detrick, Miss Helen Tupper, Miss Helen Lowden, Mrs. Ida Belle Wheaton, Mrs. Henry Nichols, Mrs. A. A. Long, Mrs. Sylvanus Farnham.

BEAUTY IN FAMILIES.

EDITOR TRIBUNE: Have you ever remarked how beauty sometimes runs in families? Take the Chabot family, for instance. Mrs. Robert Knight has always been considered one of our most beautiful young matrons. Mrs. Bocqueras has a perfect Greek type of beauty. Mrs. Dunn is very stunning and Mrs. Dieckmann a fine example of the blonde coloring.

The Hush family is another example of one blessed with "good looks." They were types of girls in superb health, with the splendid coloring that goes with physical perfection.

Mrs. Tom Magee, Mrs. Will Magee and Mrs. Bentley are stunning young matrons, always standing out from any background.

The Goddess of Beauty was very good to all the Forces, and especially to Mrs. James K. Moffitt and to Mrs. Hewlett, and there are the Herricks and the Tuckers—the Herricks all have beautiful violet eyes, especially Mrs. Mark Requa and Mrs. Josiah Stanford. And where can you find more attractive young matrons than Mrs. George McNear Jr. and Clara Tucker Brayton?

JOHN C. WESTPHAL, pioneer Oakland milling man, who died Saturday night of heart failure.

Well-Known Oaklander Built Up Extensive Business; Estate Consists of Valuable Property

As the result of an attack of heart failure, John C. Westphal, pioneer miller of Oakland, and one of the foremost men in the mill products industry of this State, died suddenly at his home, 1468 Eighth street, late Saturday night.

The funeral will be held from the family home tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock. Rev. Adolph Jatho officiating.

His son, Frederick Westphal and Mrs.

Westphal have lived with him in the family home on Eighth street since the demise of his wife, who died at the Providence Hospital about two months ago.

Besides the mill holdings, Westphal's estate includes a large amount of Oakland real estate, some of which is among the most important business property in the city.

The site of the Mackay Furniture Company's building on Fourteenth street, near Broadway, and the site of the Maxwell building are among his holdings.

The mill will probably continue its operations under the direction of his son.

Five sons survive the deceased, these being William, John C. Jr., Frederick, Theodore and George Westphal.

One of Westphal's characteristics was his love for his home and children, and he spent most of his time away with them. When his wife died two months ago it was predicted that he would not survive her long, and his closest friends were not surprised to hear of his death.

According to those who had been connected with Westphal in a business way, the estate will total $1,000,000 in value.

BUSINESS GROWS.

Under his management the mill grew from a small plant to one of the largest on the Pacific Coast, and has been known for years as the Bay Cities Milling Company. His sons actively engaged him in operating the place. Up to the time of his death the deceased was always at his desk, and attended to every detail of management despite his advanced age. He had never, according to his relatives, been ill, and his death was absolutely unexpected.

LATEST NEWS FROM OUTSIDE TOWNS

$717,000 IS PAID FOR 7300 ACRES

Large Tract Near Rio Vista Transferred to Big Corporation.

VALLEJO. March 11.—One of the largest sales of land made in this vicinity in recent years has been consummated by the transfer of 7,300 acres near Rio Vista. The purchase price is understood to have been $717,000. About 6,000 acres are in eastern Solano county and brought $600,000, while the remaining 1,300 acres being in district 17, near Lathrop, selling for $117,000.

The principals in the transaction, Benjamin Fleischer of San Francisco and Peter Cook of Rio Vista, have participated in some of the biggest deals made in recent years in California, involving 12,000 acres in all, valued at more than a million dollars. Cook is managing 15,000 acres of producing lands in the state.

The new owner, Land Company, County Builders of San Bruno, president, Peter Cook, vice-president and general manager, and Jacob Samuels, attorney and director, is the purchaser of the Solano tract.

The company is organized for 60,000,000. The 6,000 acres will be farmed this year under the direction of Cook, and after the harvest the purchasers will prepare the land for colonization by establishing a permanent levee system. The tract has been selected by the San Joaquin River Land company of which Fleischer is president, Cook vice-president and J. Stern, secretary.

WOMEN BOOSTERS TO NAME OFFICERS

Annual Election of Pleasanton Improvement Club to Take Place.

PLEASANTON. March 11.—The annual election of officers and appointment of committees by the Women's Improvement Club will take place tomorrow afternoon. The standing committees are library, civic, current events, membership, house-holding, and general literature. Each of these committees has three members except the committee on civic which has five.

At the close of the meeting the retiring officers will hold a reception for the members. The officers are: Mrs. George President; Mrs. Claude Smallwood; vice-president, Mrs. James Gill; secretary, Mrs. Caesar Bigler; treasurer, Miss Annie Devany; financial secretary, Mrs. Jerome Arnold; auditor, Mrs. Peter Rock.

FLEET MAY NOT RETURN HERE SOON

MARE ISLAND. March 11.—Reports here are to the effect that the refrigerator ship Glacier will be sent back to the yard for supplies within the coming week. In case this step is taken it will mean that the ships of the Pacific coast fleet are to remain at the mid-Pacific base for an indefinite period instead of being ordered back home, as has been hoped by yard officials. From unofficial sources it has been learned that the repair work on some of the ships is necessary, and that the longer they remain away from the yard the bigger the job will be.

The boiler work on the Jupiter, now going on here, will not be completed for three or four months, according to present prospects. The job is the largest now on hand for this branch of the yard force. All the material has been received and is being assembled, while much of the drilling has been completed. Officials of the department expect that the riveting will be commenced the latter part of the month. Work on the condensers will be taken up soon after the arrival of the design of the Albatross contract, which, with some modifications, are to be used.

OAKLAND'S BOYS AND GIRLS

AEROPLANE MEET AT BUSHROD IS SUCCESS

The aeroplane meet held last Saturday afternoon at Bushrod was a success, many remarkable flights being made by the machines and young inventors. A strong westerly breeze interfered with what otherwise might have been a wonderful exhibition. Often the little machines struck a cross-current and came to grief on a nearby building. In spite of this, however, some astonishing stunts were performed. Oakland playgrounds and schools were awarded in the following events:

For workmanship on flying glider, Albert Helm.

For workmanship on non-flying glider, C. Robert Hostin.

For workmanship on airplane, Wilford W. Young. Workmanship on power model, Edward Von Adelung.

Workmanship on power model over four feet, Harvey Morris.

Longest flight of glider, Albert Helm.

Four hundred feet relay glide, Albert Helm.

Highest power flight, Albert Helm.

Highest power flight, Harvey Morris.

Accuracy in aim, Raymond Montague.

Best circular, Vaughan Miller.

Most spectacular, Vaughn Miller.

The winners were as follows: Bushrod, six points; Oakland Amateur Club, five points; De Fremery Club, four points.

The officials of the meet were as follows: Judges, Mr. Orr, Mr. Robert and Mr. Robinson; general manager, George E. Dickey; treasurer, Frank E. Dickey; C. L. Walker, clerk of the course; Mr. Grove; assistants, John McMahan, Ray Hunter, Donald Van Stokh.

Solo dancing began at Bushrod on March 1, and will continue until the end of June. Following is the schedule of events:

Monday, 4 p.m., eighth grade and high school girls; Tuesday, 3:30 p.m., girls 8 years and under; Wednesday, 2:15 p.m., girls 9, 10, and 11 years; Thursday, 3:15 p.m., boys 11 to 12 years; 3:45 p.m., girls 12 and 13 years; Friday, 3:15 p.m., girls 14 and 15 years.

The dancing is to be taken up by the girls of Bushrod with great enthusiasm.

Two classes of teams are being organized.

On Wednesday afternoon for eighth grade and high school girls; on Saturday afternoon for high school girls; on Sunday, for the girls of Bushrod.

The schedule will be posted on March 20.

OBJECT TO WITHDRAWAL OF SEWER BIDS

WILL BOOST FOR ISSUE OF BONDS

SAN LEANDRO CITIZENS TO HEAR ARGUMENTS FAVORING RAISING OF COIN.

SAN LEANDRO. March 11.—That the wishes of the citizens may be learned regarding the proposed bond issue for $50,000 for local improvements, a mass meeting will be held tonight in the town hall under the auspices of the San Leandro Chamber of Commerce. Two of the speakers will be Mayor J. J. Gill and Postmaster C. Q. Rideout, both of whom favor the increase of the proposed bonds from $50,000 to $75,000, the additional $25,000 to be spent in building a new city hall.

The building has been condemned by the health authorities and fire inspector and it is the belief of the chief executive that it would be better to build a new hall than to patch up the old one. The mayor is opposed by the other members of the town board in his efforts to create a sentiment in favor of the expenditure of $25,000 for a new hall, the trustees deeming that the remodeling of the present building at a cost not to exceed $5000 would answer the purpose.

The plan proposed by Mayor Gill provides for an appropriation of $45,000 for street improvements, $25,000 for the city hall and $5000 for the installation of a modern fire alarm system.

4000 REGISTER AT RICHMOND

To Vote on Local Option and Recall Election April 8 and 10.

RICHMOND, March 11.—Registration for the local option and recall elections to be held in this city was completed yesterday at midnight, and the registration deputies assert that the total will reach close to 4000.

The recall election for councilmen is first on the program and has been called for the 8th of April by the resolution of the city councilmen to give full obedience to the mandate of the Supreme Court of the state, but contrary to orders from the Superior Court in San Francisco, the city councilmen are in attendance at the city court today and what the outcome may be is a matter of much conjecture. It is thought that the court hearing today and litigation growing out of it will delay the holding of the election.

CARNEGIE ADMITS AIDING ROOSEVELT

Declares Fact Will Hold the Colonel in Present Political Campaign.

HOT SPRINGS, Ark., March 11.—Andrew Carnegie contributed money to help defray expenses involved in his trip to Africa, but the contribution was modest, and the contribution was modest after Carnegie had talked to Colonel Woodcock of the Smithsonian Institution. Roosevelt never asked Carnegie to contribute a cent for any purpose, according to Carnegie himself in a statement made here today. He did not say what sum he contributed.

"My attention to the need of funds was called by Colonel Woodcock of the Smithsonian Institute and I contributed, helping him in doing so. Colonel Roosevelt has never either as President or a private citizen requested me to contribute one penny for anything, but in return for the donation he presented the Carnegie Institute at Pittsburgh with some of the trophies of his hunt, for which I am his debtor for life."

"If that story (that Carnegie gave Roosevelt $20,000 for the African trip) has been brought out an attack on the Colonel, in my opinion, it will only benefit him."

ROBT. FERRAL DIES GUARD MORGAN OF HEART FAILURE ART TREASURES

Familiar Figure Across Bay Passes Away After Notable Career.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 10.—One of the most familiar figures of the San Francisco bar, and old-time San Franciscan who was as well loved as he was known, passed out on Saturday night when Robert Ferral succumbed to heart failure at his residence, 1678 Sacramento street.

Judge Ferral was born in Philadelphia in 1841 and came to California when he was eleven years of age. His parents left him an orphan at an early age and he had to "hustle" for himself, which was the subject of many witty and humorous tales when he could be prevailed on to speak of his early struggles.

From selling papers when the boats from Panama came in, Ferral graduated to reporterial ranks and served on the "Alta California," the "Eagle" and the "Post." He became chief clerk of the California Senate and, in 1872, was presented with a gold watch, which he treasured highly.

In the early eighties he was elected a judge of the old City Criminal Court, and was a judge of the Superior Court from 1885 to 1891. After that he was assistant district attorney under Thomas Ryan and twice ran for Congress on the Democratic ticket, missing election the second time by a close margin.

In latter years he gave himself entirely to the practice of law and was recognized as one of the leading criminal attorneys of the state. He appeared in many celebrated cases, including the defense of Police Captain Conroy in his four trials.

The funeral will be held tomorrow afternoon at 1:30 o'clock from Golden Gate Commandery hall, Sutter and Steiner streets, under the auspices of the Masons. He also belonged to many other orders and took a leading part in Masonry.

Ferral left a widow, Mrs. Frances G. Ferral, and one sister, Mrs. Francis Gallagher. He lost his only child, a son, some nine years ago. His death will be mourned by a host of professional and social friends as well as by a number of those who owe their start in life to his kind offices and over-open purse.

CYCLISTS RUN DOWN GIRL; FLEE; CAUGHT

CHICAGO, March 11.—Two young men who ran down and fatally injured Miss Elizabeth Mills with a motorcycle were caught on the south side yesterday after they had been pursued for more than a mile by several persons in automobiles. Immediately after the accident occurred the young men attempted to escape. Miss Mills died within an hour. Her skull was fractured.

Children are much more likely to contract the contagious disease when they have colds. Whooping cough, diphtheria, measles, fever and other diseases often contracted when the child has a cold. That is why all medical authorities say beware of colds. For the quick cure of colds you will find nothing better than Chastain's Cough Remedy. It can always be depended upon and is pleasant and safe to take. For sale by your Osgood Bros. drug store.

PARACHUTE JUMPER DROPS FROM AEROPLANE

ST. LOUIS, March 11.—Edward Berry successfully leaped from a flying airplane in a parachute yesterday. The performance was the second of its kind in the history of aviation. Berry having been the first birdman to attempt the feat when he leaped from a machine ten years ago. It was spreading his wings when he was shot down by a bullet from a gun. Berry, however, escaped death yesterday when the parachute became tangled under him. He succeeded in righting it before reaching earth.

TO ELECTRIZE LINE,
FRESNO, March 11.—The Southern Pacific company is planning to electrify its steam road from Fresno to Friant. Just when the work will start is not known, but it is understood that the company has definitely decided to change the power plant to electric power.

It is also understood that the Southern Pacific will operate a railroad now being built into Big Creek for the Pacific Light and Power company.

The story is that of the domestic trouble.

There is present an inclination on the part of the cast to roll down stairs. That, indeed, would seem to be a necessary part of all French pantomimes.

Mile. Payne does it gracefully and ingeniously, while the Count is a

However, that may be, we'd advise you to go and see Miss Dresser.

and there's a way she has about her that's catchy and serves to enliven the occasion.
